Notwithstanding the amended protective order's provision that a motion to file under seal must satisfy "the requirements imposed by applicable law," (ECF No. 144 at 8-9), Defendants do not set forth any legal standard or argument that would justify sealing the documents set forth in their motion to file under seal. See Kamakana v. City & Cnty. of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006) (explaining that a party must demonstrate "compelling reasons" to seal judicial records attached to a dispositive motion). Because the documents Defendants want sealed are in support of a dispositive motion, the fact that the documents were marked "CONFIDENTIAL-FOR OUTSIDE COUNSEL ONLY" does not, by itself, satisfy the "compelling reasons" standard as to the specific pieces of information that Defendants want sealed. See id. at 1183-84.

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants' motion to file under seal, (ECF No. 196), is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Defendants shall have until December 16, 2013, to file a motion to seal that sets forth the compelling reasons for sealing the specific pieces of information that Defendants want sealed. The documents currently lodged under seal at ECF Nos. 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205 may remain so lodged until the Court decides Defendants' forthcoming motion to seal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: December 9, 2013

HON. GONZALO P. CURIEL United States District Judge
